

IN THE MICHIGAN COURT OF APPEALS

ORDER

Re: Dennis Mauch v Nations Finance Corporation

Docket No. 260695

L.C. No. 03-019742-CP

William C. Whitbeck, Chief Judge, acting under MCR 7.203(F)(1) and 7.216(A)(10), orders:

The claim of appeal is DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction because the probate court order being appealed is not a final order as defined by MCR 5.801(B)(1)(a) though (bb). Though appellants have never provided the order denying attorney fees and costs and the register of actions does not show the filing date of the motion for reconsideration, this claim of appeal is being dismissed because the order being appealed does not fall within one of more of the categories found in MCR 5.801(B)(1)(a) through (bb). Though appellants keep changing the basis of this Court's jurisdiction when every new jurisdictional checklist is filed, the appellant must demonstrate, though they have not, that the order falls within one of the twenty-eight categories of MCR 5.801(B)(1)(a) through (bb). MCR 7.202(6)(a) is irrelevant to probate court orders as MCR 5.801(B)(1) involves the exclusive definitions of final order for probate court cases.
